

Caroline Eberhard

Manager of Education & Community Engagement

Caroline Eberhard is a graduate of Baldwin Wallace Conservatory and holds a Bachelor's of Music Degree in Vocal Performance. She has a combined 15 years of musical experience and 10 years of experience in education. She has spent her time as an educator in public schools, private schools, and non-profit organizations, working in an assortment of classroom sizes, with students of varying age and ability. Caroline has worked as a voice, piano, and sailing instructor, and has been as a substitute teacher in Cuyahoga County. She has 3 years of experience in administration from her work as a Medical Assistant in Canton and Administrative Assistant at the non-profit organization Regatta Point Community Sailing in Worcester, MA. Originally from Shrewsbury, MA, Caroline grew up continuously involved in theater and musical productions. She began taking vocal lessons at age 11, and studied under Angela Gooch of the Longy School of Music. In college, Caroline studied under Jim Mismas and Cynthia O'Connell. Caroline continues to teach private voice and piano lessons through Avon School of Music and Strongsville Academy of Music. In her free time, Caroline enjoys cooking, hiking, reading.