

Ashli Snider

Canton Youth Symphonies Assistant

Ashli Snider is in her junior year at Walsh University and is double majoring in Museum Studies and Visual and Performing Arts with a focus on art history. She is a member of the Walsh University Concert Band and Marching Band where she plays flute and piccolo. Ashli has been playing the flute for over 10 years and has participated in multiple ensembles throughout her high school and college music career, including the Cleveland Youth Wind Symphony and the Ohio State University-sponsored High School Honors Band. This is Ashli's second year as the Canton Youth Symphonies Assistant
