

Grace Kanipe

Marketing and Development Intern

Grace Kanipe is currently a sophomore at the University of Mount Union, she is pursuing a dual major in Public Relations and Business Management, with a minor in music. In addition to studies, Grace is heavily involved on campus. She is deeply immersed in Greek life, holding multiple leadership roles within the Greek community and she serves as a pivotal member of the university's preview and orientation staff, warmly welcoming new students and easing their transition into college life. Her involvement extends to the Raider Guide program, where she mentors peers and fosters a supportive environment for student success. Beyond her academic and leadership commitments, Grace thoroughly enjoys reading books, painting, and music in all its forms. Looking toward the future, Grace wish to pursue a career path in Arts Administration and Management, blending her studies of business and PR with her passions in music.
