

Catarina Tran

Personnel Manager

Catarina Tran earned a Bachelor in Music Education degree at Lamar University and a Master of Music in Conducting at Kent State University. During her time at Lamar University, she was a twirler for the marching band, active member of TMEA (Texas Music Education Association), Kappa Kappa Psi, and Vietnamese Student Association. She attended Kent State University as a Graduate Assistant, assisting in all concert and athletic bands. In addition to her studies, Tran has participated in a chamber music group with fellow classmates from Kent State University. Catarina Tran is currently the Personnel Manager for the Canton Symphony Orchestra. She also teaches flute and saxophone at Woodsy's. When she is not immersed in music, you can find her hanging out with her pets and daydreaming about adventures at Disney World.
