

Rachel Ader

Education & Community Engagement Intern

Rachel is a 2023 graduate of Case Western Reserve University, where she studied music and psychology. Her main instrument is voice, but she plays guitar and dabbles in piano and cello as well. During this past school year, she worked as a Vocal Music Paraprofessional at Cleveland Heights High School. This summer, she is back in her home city of Boston and will be working as a Student Life Assistant at Berklee College of Music's Summer Programs. She hopes to pursue a graduate degree in Arts Administration within the next few years. Apart from music, she enjoys reading, being outside, playing with her dog Winnie and younger brothers, and watching movies.
