

Aniyah Lewis

2025 Summer Intern

Aniyah Lewis is currently a rising Junior at The College of Wooster, and is a double major in Mathematics and Music. She is the Vice-President of Black Women's Organization, formerly the Treasure of Black Women's Organization, and formerly the Co-President of Women of Images. She is also planning on being the Service Chair for her sorority, Pi Kappa, who is focused on loyalty, service, and diversity. She also plays the Alto and Soprano Saxophone and is in the Scot Symphonic Band, who goes on tour every spring. After college, she plans to get her certificates to become an actuary while also still continuing to play music in and for her community.
